

Leadership in Great Workplaces

Whether your organization is striving for greatness or working to sustain it, understanding your unique role as a leader is crucial to your organization's success. In this session, you will learn about the distinctive qualities of leaders in the best workplaces, including behaviors of the best leaders and specific workplace practices at Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work for"® and the "Best Small & Medium Companies to Work for" (published in HR Magazine). This session will equip you with an understanding of the trust-building abilities and behaviors found at the best workplaces, and support you in creating a framework for leading your organization to new levels of trust.

Learning Outcomes:

- Understand the behaviors and practices that enhance leadership effectiveness in creating great workplaces
- Learn what performance data leaders measure in the best workplaces
- Hear what employees report about their leaders in high-trust environments
- Appreciate the critical role of trust in great workplaces, and the role leaders play in creating and sustaining it

Other Information:

- Appropriate audience: Senior leaders, managers, and Human Resources staff of organizations aspiring to improve business performance by creating a great workplace
- Presentation will be customized to fit the needs of your organization
